

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FROM THE STARS

VERSION (SUBTITLES)

REVISED: JUNE 10, 2018

SCENE	TIME	SCRIPT
	00:15	I hear that it's your birthday, the news is trav'ling far It's orbiting around the Earth, and heading to the stars
	00:23	CHORUS: Happy Birthday! The stars sing you a song And they'll be oh so happy, if you will sing a long!
	00:31	The news it circled 'round the Moon, and gave the Moon a smile; And wandered off to Venus, and lingered there a while;
	00:39	At Mercury it stayed to see, that planet's bashful side And shadowed craters at the poles, where ice can stay and hide
	00:47	CHORUS: Happy Birthday! The stars sing you a song And they'll be oh so happy, if you will sing a long!
	00:54	The Sun it laughed to hear the news and bellowed out a cheer Which sailed upon the solar wind for nearly all a year
	01:02	The news was just too good to keep, it's heading to the stars; But on its way it gave a wave to the rovers out on Mars.

	01:10	CHORUS: Happy Birthday! The stars sing you a song And they'll be oh so happy, if you will sing a long!
	01:18	At Jupiter it gathered steam, from Io's orange blast And watched the jovian northern lights, as it went streaming past
	01:26	The rocky rings of Saturn, they covered it in dust So it took a little shower, at the font Enceladus
	01:34	CHORUS: Happy Birthday! The stars sing you a song And they'll be oh so happy, if you will sing a long!
	01:42	It zoomed away to Uranus, with its skinny dusty rings Then played a tune on Neptune, with Triton's singing springs
	01:49	And now it's passing Voyager, it's left our Sun behind; And heading to the Milky Way where all the stars do shine
	01:57	CHORUS: Happy Birthday! The stars sing you a song And they'll be oh so happy, if you will sing a long!
	02:05	And guess what those stars all joined in, when they heard the news? They pulled themselves together to give Birthday Cheer to You!

	02:13	Happy Birthday! The stars bring you their cheer And we all send you wishes for a supernova year! Happy Birthday! The stars bring you their cheer And we all send you wishes for a su-per-nov-a year!
